The following excerpts represent a small fraction of the scientific, geopolitical, environmental, medical and economic information contained in the Contact Reports and that could only have been obtained through space and/or time travel.

This “higher standard of proof” is unique to the Meier contacts, which are still ongoing for over 82 years.

Corroboration of Billy Meier's Information on A-Bomb Ozone Damage

ATOM BOMB TESTING TIED TO OZONE DEPLETION

Atmospheric testing of nuclear bombs during the late 1950s and early 1960s apparently shredded parts of the Earth's protective ozone layer, causing as much as a 5 percent loss of ozone over the central United States, according to recent analyses at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory near Oakland.

Researchers think the huge fireballs from explosions hurled destructive chemicals into the upper atmosphere, where a misty layer of ozone shields the planet from lethal doses of ultraviolet solar radiation. The damage was even greater in the Arctic regions, where as much as 12 percent of the ozone layer reportedly vanished.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has estimated that a 1 percent reduction in the ozone shield could mean as many as 43,000 additional skin cancers in the United States.

"We're not talking about negligible changes," said Donald Wuebbles, an atmospheric scientist at Livermore.

Wuebbles stressed that the ozone loss was temporary. Atmospheric records show that starting in 1963—the year the United States and Soviet Union agreed to halt atmospheric tests—global ozone levels inched upward until the decade's end.

IN BRIEF

Size of Brain Segment Linked to Verbal Fluency

An area of the brain that is thought to be the source of the ability to speak fluently is larger in women than in men and is largest in those women with the greatest verbal fluency, UCLA researchers reported last week. The observation could provide at least partial confirmation for the previously recognized fact that women have greater verbal facility than men, and could explain why some women are more facile than others, said psychiatrist Melissa Hines.

Hines used sophisticated magnetic resonance imaging to study the size of the splenium—a segment of the corpus callosum that links the two halves of the brain—in 28 women who were also given tests to measure their ability to communicate verbally. The corpus callosum has previously been found to be larger in women than in men.

Hines and her colleagues reported in the February issue of Behavioral Neuroscience that the women who scored best on tests of verbal fluency had the largest spleniums.

Ozone Hole Damages Food Chain

The expanding hole in the ozone layer above the South Pole is significantly reducing the growth of phytoplankton—minute floating plants—that form the foundation of the Antarctic food chain, researchers reported last week. The effect is the first direct evidence that the abnormally high levels of ultraviolet light coming through the ozone hole is having an impact on Antarctic populations, said geographer Raymond C. Smith of UC Santa Barbara, who headed the team.

The Antarctic ozone hole, which was first detected in 1979, is the strongest evidence that the Earth's protective ozone layer is being damaged by chlorofluorocarbons used in refrigerators, air conditioners, foam insulation and the electronics industry.

In 1990, the team studied phytoplankton in an area of the Bellinghousen Sea, where the edge of the ozone hole swept back and forth repeatedly during the six-week study. They reported last week in the journal Science that the growth rate of the phytoplankton decreased by 8% to 12% during periods when the hole was over them and they were exposed to greater amounts of damaging ultraviolet light.

They estimate that this corresponds to a 2% to 4% decrease in yearly phytoplankton growth in the Antarctic. Decreased amounts of phytoplankton would lead to decreases in the number of fish.

first order for your governments and scientists. 15/Raise a group from your circles which especially dedicates itself for missions, as the following one will be, because this one and further ones are of immense importance to all living forms on Earth. 16/This group ought to have as its field of activity, to keep scientists and governments from bringing into use certain matters, results of research, cognitions and achievements, which can bring death, damage and destruction to all creatures and the whole sun-system.

17/Today's message is: For many decades we have monitored all spheres of your world, the increasing changes and the dangerous effects. 18/For some years now we have noticed a steadily increasing and dangerous change in your atmosphere, which will have deadly consequences for all Earth life; by increasing measure the ozone belt of the stratosphere changes due to irresponsible influences of human achievements. 19/Different ozone-destroying chemicals mount as gas-substances into the stratosphere and affect the ozone belt. 20/Especially this treats of the bromine gases, which reach into the ozone stratum and slowly dissolves it. 21/It is already affected and destroyed by an average measure of 6.38%. 22/An amount of percentage which has already become harmful and dangerous for all forms of life, and is able to call up mutational changes. 23/This is an amount which was reached in only 60 years. 24/There are bromine gas substances which slowly destroy the ozone belt, as I have already mentioned. 25/So increasingly, ultraviolet radiations of the sun can invade the atmosphere, which is able to affect all creatures. 26/Over different areas the ozone belt is already dangerously affected and has become variable in its protective function. 27/At three different places already the danger exists that it would collapse within a few decades and be completely destroyed, if the release of destructive factors is not limited. 28/If this is not done, then it means holes will be rent in the protective screen and the ultraviolet radiation will be able to penetrate unimpeded, which could carry in itself the painful death of all life. 29/Everything that comes into reach of the radiation penetrating through the holes will be exposed to helpless destruction. 30/In the main, the destroying chemicals and radiations are set free by explosion engines and matter destroying processes of all sorts, for example atom-splitting and similar operations, which in great amount since 1945 has subjected the whole world's course and all living things to a wicked change. 31/Destructive chemicals and gases are released by things of daily life, as each spray-bottle releases besides bromine, chemicals of other sorts, which mount to the atmosphere and destroy it slowly but systematically.

7th Contact, February 25, 1975

32/Recently researchers and scientists of different nations have progressed so far, and have proceeded so far in their cognitions, that they have recognized the destructive work of different chemicals, and especially the bromine on the ozone belt, and want to evaluate this in their irresponsible delusion for might for war-technical purposes. 33/They have already invented basic ideas for building missile bodies, whose destructive and death-bringing substances will be bromides. 34/Shot up into the atmosphere and brought to explosion there, it would effect the tearing of huge holes in the atmosphere and the ozone belt and all radiations from the sun would penetrate unimpeded. 35/Such a hole is only slowly able to close itself again, which process may take hundreds of years, if no further destructive substances invade. 36/An additional factor that comes into effect is that the ozone belt has a certain movement, and is wandering. 37/A hole would not only destroy a well defined region, but it would wander nearly uncontrollably and also destroy other regions. 38/This is a fact which is not yet known to your scientists.

39/Besides that, these are also facts which until today have been hidden from broad publicity. 40/My message aims to persuade you to form a group dedicating itself to our missions, which shall serve to prevent such achievements. 41/Do do contact governments and scientists and make them attentive to their wrongdoings and activity/ 42/It lies in the interest of all of mankind and all life on Earth to successfully reach a prohibition agreement among all nations of your world. 43/Turn yourself as well to Mr. McElroy at Harvard University in the United States, for he is already a decisive scientist in this field.

The Meier group accepted this challenge and did send a copy of this communication to Prof. Michael McElroy of Harvard University, but they never received any answer from him. They also sent a copy of this writing to every foreign embassy in Switzerland and only received an answer from one, West Germany, which thanked them for the information.

cepted. 14/Also you were rebuked for the fact that you promised to exercise the beginning lessons for enlightenment this month. 15/My observations have shown you not having yet undertaken any steps in organizing these lessons.

Weiser- You know that in such things I am a null and need assistance.

Sejjase- 16/Sure, but nevertheless you do finally have to take this in hand, because time presses for different things. 17/If in this respect you get no help from your group members, then you will have to take everything in hand yourself, because enlightenment has become urgent. 18/It is no longer sufficient that you spread alone inside of your group and certain interested circles, what you know, because the time has now come, to inform the public as well. 19/This means that you have to start troubling yourself to inform the public at large. 20/This is becoming more urgent. 21/If you have already prepared a lecture, then you will have to modify it now to speak of further facts. 22/This new factor is the destruction of the ozone belt, which continues to deteriorate more and more. 23/Prepare as well a flyer on this danger. 24/Send it to newspapers and television, etc., and cry out this menacing danger from the roofs. 25/Further you should insert into the lecture that the atomic danger has increased again by immense proportion. (See special note following.)

Weiser- You can talk so easily, Sejjase, as first I get rebuked that everything I write on paper is too harsh. On the other hand, always, the silly question rises, why you would not assist us financially... Indeed, I sometimes cry and weep, for I consider such things confoundedly unreasonable. I have at times considered simply throwing everything away, and go doing some normal daily work. For first, I am then away from my financial worries, and for second, I do not have to answer illogical questions...

Sejjase- 26/The execution of your task is within your own consideration. 27/If you want to retreat, then this would be unfortunate; on the other hand we don't tie you by force and coercion, and you are free to decide. 30/Consider that only a very few Earth humans have similar opportunity, and many of these lack the courage to reveal the matters openly. 31/As a human being it is your duty to tell what you know only aroused by secrets for which he can hurt...

Weiser- That is really very much that you are explaining, Ptash. But I still have other questions, if the time suffices. One question here concerns our Earth. I often think that, because the weather and the climate seem to me playing crazy... I could consider this being in connection with the atomic bomb's explosions, that these could be the cause for that, which matter is still contested by the dear sciences. Am I going right in this, or am I wrong in my assumptions?

Ptash- 887/You search very thoroughly for all reasons in a matter. 888/Earth's magnetism has been disturbed by the atomic explosions. 889/In this respect, the explosions produced a weak repulsion of the Earth, influencing the rotation by nearly immeasurable values. 890/By this means the Earth has also been forced a little out of normal orbit and now slowly searches out its new orbital course. 892/By this act, the Earth scientists have committed a crime against their own planet and all Earth mankind, because the forced changes by these explosions will have far reaching effect of great importance, and can produce catastrophic results. 893/Already the magnetic poles are being displaced increasingly. 894/Thus today the magnetic pole is already displaced into the Canadian Ice Sea, while also the south pole has been dislocated, and moves in the direction of South America. 895/By the time of the third millennium, in about 1,000 years, the migration of the poles will have progressed so far, that the south pole will be in South America, while the north pole will have moved to Saudi Arabia. 896/The calculated location of the north pole in the year 1,000 resulted in a location point between Jidda, on the Red Sea, and Mecca. 900/A much greater danger is presented by the release, in those explosions, of elementary radiations, which will present great riddles to Earth scientists, because they have not conceived their sort and form. 901/Three main factors of Earth life are influenced by the release of these elementary radiations, and are injured. 902/The catastrophic effect after an atomic explosion the size of the Hiroshima bomb lasts for several centuries, and negatively influences all processes of life preservation. 903/The pure atmospheric strata of the Earth are influenced in a quite catastrophic manner by the release of these elementary radations, which cause electrical energies in great magnitude. 905/This happens in very high frequency ranges, which still are unknown to Earth sciences. 906/These energies do not deal with the known to you usual electrical energy, but of an electrical radiation energy which is near the ultra-violet spectrum. 907/This radiation energy mingles itself with the oxygen in the air and generates huge quantities of ozone. 908/This ozone value increases 34 fold a short time after the explosion. 909/These dangerous concentrations destroy in wide surroundings, all micro-organisms of wide variety, which are of critical importance for the preservation of Earth life. 910/Then a short time after the explosion the ozone values decrease drastically to very low levels. 911/Certain elementary effects penetrate all matter and endure for hundreds of years, during which time they always and continually kill all micro-organisms which come near them. 912/One factor in relation to the ozone is this lethal destruction.

913/A further important factor is the effect on the ozone belt which surrounds the Earth and protects it from ultra-violet radiations from the sun. These gasses are injured in several ways, and can no more absorb the ultra-violet rays.

Weiser- Sejjase has already spoken of that in relation to industrial gasses. But one thing is not clear to me yet. Natural flashes of the atmospheric lightning also produces ozone. Why does this not destroy the micro-organisms?

Ptash- 914/Nature works exactly according to its law. 915/The industrial ozone is generated from different factors than lightning. 916/The lightning cleans, while the other pollutes. 917/The healthy ozone belt provides a natural protection for Earth creatures from the strong ultra-violet radiations of the sun. 918/Direct irradiation of living creatures by this radiation, and further similar radiations from other parts of the Universe, would inevitably evoke death for all forms... 921/Nature herself always generates just as much ozone as necessary to guarantee life...

Weiser- What about the atomic radiations, which from my reckonings must surround the Earth to very great heights?

Ptash- 925/Your reckonings are nearly right, but it does not deal with the actual atomic radiation. 926/As I said, quite special elemental radiations are also generated by the

Earthquakes, Oil Inter-act

•For four decades the beach area has been plagued by unsuccessful threats of onshore and offshore oil drilling and by the knowledge that there are hundreds of sub-standard buildings which could crumble in a major earthquake. Now Stanford's Geo-physics Professor, Paul Segall, has scientifically related both fears. He's published a mathematical model which suggests oil and gas extraction may lead potentially to serious earthquake tremors. Simply stated, Segall says: "When gas or oil that has been sitting in the pores of the rock is taken out, the gas reservoir shrinks but the surrounding rocks do not shrink. This creates a mismatch and then sets up stresses in the earth."

Contact 45 - February 25, 1976

Meier- By this you would donate a huge delight for me. You mentioned a lot of manners before, in ways in which you gain the lead. Here it has struck me that you have mentioned no word of an ore-mining of Earth kind. Is this sort or obtaining ores not usual with you?

Semjase- 56/Ore-mining or other mineral mining on a planet or another star is done by us only in extreme emergency, because this process is equal to the destruction of the star. 57/A planet or another star is never exploited in a form as is done on Earth. 58/What the Earth human being does by that is equal to the destruction of the planet. 59/The first evil effects of this destruction came up on the Earth already some decades ago, and at the present time it is already experiencing the pains of the destruction itself. 60/This is to understand the way that the Earth human being exploits his planet, and robs from it its fundamental life force when he deprives it of its oil, gas and the different ores. 61/The effect of this is that the Earth suffers shifts inside, leading to volcanic eruptions and earthquakes, because the Earth is slowly breaking down into itself. 62/The same event is generated also by the construction of dams and similar formations, which cause, by the assembled masses of water, very dangerous shifts. 63/The worst delusion the Earth human being is performing is his subterranean and below-surface experiments with atomic bombs, as well as those cruel deep subterranean explosion tests, which he declares are atomic bomb tests, but which in truth are much more dangerous.<sup>5</sup>

Meier- These are concerns which I know, but which all hold

Mercury: The incredible shrinking planet

By Rachel Courtland

3 July 2008

▲ Scarps that cut across the surface of Mercury suggest the planet has been shrinking
(Image: Science/AAAS)

The solar system's smallest planet has been shrinking at an unexpected rate, researchers announced on Thursday.

When NASA's Mariner 10 probe flew by Mercury in 1974 and 1975, it returned images of strange cliffs called 'scarps' that cut across all sorts of geological formations. That suggested that the planet's surface has contracted over time.

Now, pictures of Mercury's surface taken with NASA's Messenger spacecraft confirm that the crust appears to have buckled. In fact, the planet seems to have shrunk more than previously thought – and may still be shrinking.

The new result comes from an analysis of pictures snapped when the spacecraft whipped past the planet on 14 January and photographed a previously unseen 20% of the surface.

In order for such shrinking to take place, Mercury must have had a molten, liquid core that has cooled and contracted over time.

66th Contact, November 10, 1976

Meier- Thank you. - Know, Mercury is still another problem for me. Just two days ago, I remembered this again. When in last year we flew around this cluster, then you told me, it would still more contract itself. Why does this happen?

Semjase- 206/The metal core of the planet has such a large specific mass, that the outer skin, that is, the outer stratum, contract constantly inwards, by which fact the outer spheres become extremely compact.

Meier- Oh yes, you have already explained this to me once.

'It's 99% certain there is life on Mars': Shock finding as scientists re-analyse soil samples from Seventies Viking lander

- Soil samples from Viking 1 lander which visited Mars in 1976
- Mathematical analysis shows strong sign of organics
- Samples had been dismissed as contaminated
- '99% probability of life' claims one scientist

In July 1976, the Viking 1 probe touched down on Mars and failed to find traces of life - but now, three decades later, scientists think the experiment was flawed.

Viking 1 did find evidence of extraterrestrial microbes in soil samples from the Red Planet.

Mathematical analysis of the samples concluded that salts in the soil on Mars 'threw off' initial estimates - and that the soil samples show strong evidence of microbial life.

The new analysis looked for 'complexity' in the samples - an indication of life. To the surprise of the scientists, they found it.

Contact 59, July 8, 1976

Meier- You are right, too. Yet now another question: You had once told me that no life would exist on Mars. If I have understood this right, you meant by this but planetarian human life, didn't you?

Senjase- 114/Certainly.

Meier- Well - then your earlier answer does not exclude (the possibility) that any other life of floritic or faunic form can exist there, or even does exist. You then told (me) expressly, that life does not exist there, while logically you had addressed only the human planetary life. What do you think now, Will the Americans discover low forms of life with their sonde sent to Mars?

Senjase- 115/They will meet with surprises in many respects, as in the fact that Mars has much more water than earthly science had assumed until now. 116/But there are also surprises in the character of the ground and the nature of the microworld. 117/The floritic and faunic world can absolutely be found on Mars when the scientific instruments of these sondes are well enough to evaluate and store the concerned results.

Meier- Then "life on Mars" could prove true for our science?

Senjase- 118/It is in the compass of possibility, that the analyses could verify this, when the scientific instruments are good enough, because faunic and floritic forms of life are existing on Mars, even though this planet destroys other forms of life by its contrary to life nature.

☰ ☰ Volcanism on Io

Volcanism on Io, a moon of Jupiter, is represented by the presence of volcanoes, volcanic pits and lava flows on the moon's surface. Its volcanic activity was discovered in 1979 by Voyager 1 imaging scientist Linda Morabito.<sup>[1]</sup> Observations of Io by passing spacecraft (the Voyagers, Galileo, Cassini, and New Horizons) and Earth-based astronomers have revealed more than 150 active volcanoes. Up to 400 such volcanoes are predicted to exist based on these observations.<sup>[2]</sup> Io's volcanism makes the satellite one of only four known currently volcanically active worlds in the Solar System (the other three being Earth, Saturn's moon Enceladus, and Neptune's moon Triton).

Io's volcanism has led to the formation of hundreds of volcanic centres and extensive lava formations, making it the most volcanically active body in the Solar System. Three different types of volcanic eruptions have been identified, differing in duration, intensity, lava effusion rate, and whether the eruption occurs within a volcanic pit (known as a patera). Lava flows on Io, tens or hundreds of kilometres long, have primarily basaltic composition, similar to lavas seen on Earth at shield volcanoes such as Kīlauea in Hawaii.<sup>[5]</sup> Although most of the lava on Io is made of basalt, a few lava flows consisting of sulfur and sulfur dioxide have been seen. In addition, eruption temperatures as high as 1,600 K (1,300 °C; 2,400 °F) were detected, which can be explained by the eruption of high-temperature ultramafic silicate lavas.<sup>[6]</sup>

APPENDIX I

PROPHEESIES

Because events run in a sequential order, and some can not occur until others have already done so, prophecy is a necessary science to any other intelligence studying a society in evolution. Thus many extraterrestrials visiting this planet have engaged in predicting future events on out timeline.

In the 43rd contact, on Thursday, 27 January 1976, Meier complained of a work overload due to his having to take down the contact notes, the transmissions from Arahath Athersata, and now the prophetic transmissions from the Petale Sphere. Semjase agreed to see what could be done about slowing down the Athersata transmissions for a time, but the prophecies from the Petale Sphere continued.

All extraterrestrial intelligences needing this information, also calculate, or seek to perceive, future events for their own illumination.

Thus it was that in a contact on 19 October 1978, a discussion of detailed prophesied events came up.

We jump forward here to that contact, at this time, because the time of taking down the Petale Prophecies is the time of these present contacts in 1976. Also because I was able to personally observe the outworking of some of those prophecies in 1979 when I was in Europe. One of these was the invasion of North Viet-Nam by China, another was the storming of the Iranian Embassy in London by London Bobbies, and a third was the abdication of Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands in favor of her daughter Beatrix, all of which I had been told to expect by Eduard Meier before the event actually happened.

In a discussion of this in his house on 9 March 1979, Mr. Meier offered to show me his restricted notes on prophecies that had already come to pass.

Wanting evidence for myself, I asked for copies of the pages listing only the events mentioned which had already occurred. I was fully aware of Meier's promise to both Semjase and the Petale Sphere, not to reveal events before their time.

He handed the notes to Eva and sent her out of the room to make copies of those pages for me. While she was doing that, Meier was called to the telephone. While he was still talking on the phone, Eva came back with the copies and handed them to me, which I stuck in my briefcase. When Meier came back from the telephone, he asked me if I had been given the copy pages, and I said yes and patted my briefcase.

When I looked at the notes later, I discovered that Eva had misunderstood and gave me more pages than Meier intended, because there were prophecies that had not yet been fulfilled. I decided to keep Meier's promise not to release information on events before their time, but when I got home I allowed two good friends of mine to read the notes in full for future confirmation. Those two men were Major Rudolph Pestalozzi, USAF (Ret.), and Mr. O. Richard Norton, former director of the Flandreau Planetarium at the University of Arizona in Tucson.

I have now decided to release those few pages from the 115th Contact on 19 October 1978 for your appreciation.

Meier had been summoned to a late afternoon contact, to which he decided to respond, after refusing several previous summons over the last few weeks. He delayed responding for some time, deciding whether he would go or not. When he did go, and finally got to the rendezvous site, the Pleiadians arrived in force. Ptaah and Quetzal were with Semjase this time, because Meier had become disenchanted and broke off the contacts himself, refusing to respond to the summoning signals. He had not responded for some time.

The first part of the meeting was taken up by the Pleiadians trying to persuade Meier to continue with the contacts, because a mission was dangerously periled. They made some concessions and then reminded him of some of the prophecies that would occasionally involve him in some way. This led to a discussion of prophecies in general, and some that he had already taken from the Petale Sphere in particular.

Here then are the pages that Eva handed me in Eduard Meier's house in Switzerland on 9 March 1979. The events mentioned in the prophecies that follow that date now speak for themselves. She had marked the notes as indicated.

Important: This is not an exact translation due to a lack of experience with the English language by the translator, but is a close copy of the original in German.

FOR THE EYES OF WENDELLE, LEE, BRIT AND TOM ONLY

~~Semjase~~ 35/So now do listen. 36/The first sign of the final times will be a sect massacre, for which many political personalities will bear great guilt. 37/By murder and forced mass-murder, nearly 200 children will find their death, and around 1,023 grown-up persons also, while of all of them only an amount of about 1,000 will be found. 38/This tragedy will happen in Johnstown, a village in Guayana, named after the megalomaniac and injured in conscience sect-leader Jim Jones, who has emigrated to Guayana together with a great part of his fanatical and hypnosis-influenced followers, and established there a village where he keeps his believers like slaves. 39/By recommendation papers of many political personalities in America, has succeeded for him the emigration to Guayana, together with his adherents, where he maintains a barbarous regiment. At the time of the middle of November, now will be and happen, that he evokes by coercion and hypnosis, a fanaticism for which more than one thousand human beings will fall victim. 41/Many will voluntarily consume an offered poison, and will kill their children as well with this, while others will be forced to do the same thing, and the remaining ones will be killed by the bullets of murderers. 42/This extremely degenerate sect calls itself "Peoples Temple" or "Volkskirche Vereinigung" (Common United Church), and is very much engaged politically and is sponsored by American politicians, who must share a very large guilt for making possible this cruel massacre, because they were those who paved the way Jim Jones crazy doings, and opened the way to all.

Meier- That is most cruel. Isn't there any possibility for preventing that? One must be able to do something against it.

Semjase- 43/No, there is no other way, because this event must occur, because there are many important effects connected with this, which especially will happen in America. 44/You yourself then will have a decisive role in this matter, because after this event you will have to send a message from us to the American Government and the American people.

Meier- And what things will this message contain?

Semjase- 45/This you will know at the appointed time.

Meier- Well, but how do you imagine that I could reach the American government? If I write to there they will never get my message, as I do know by experience.

Semjase- 46/Such will not occur, because meanwhile you are keeping the decisive contacts by which this message will reach its addressee. 47/We will give you according advice in this respect. 48/This task is obligated to you and even then, if among us things should appear, which will become very unpleasant...

Meier- But what will this mean?

Semjase- 49/This you will recognize in a short time. but do promise me that you will nevertheless undertake this task, as for many reasons we ourselves cannot perform it, and as well order anybody else, by which I mean Earth human beings, who unfortunately are not within our disposal besides you.

Meier- Okay, I don't want to flinch. This is a promise.

Semjase- 50/Sure, you used to keep your promises in honor, but be aware that the accomplishment of this will be very hard for you, because of very undelightful things coming to appear.

Meier- You can trust me. I won't flinch from my obligation, even though very undelightful things will happen.

Senjase- 51/That is your word, like one can not expect otherwise from you. 52/I thank you very much.

Meier- Nonsense. Don't make a fuss over it. Do tell me more, what further on will appear for the Earth that you wanted to tell me. Here as well I would be very much interested in whether really now the Shah of Iran will be overthrown after the New Year, and be expelled from Iran, as I have figured out. And next, I also wonder about whether the "Voyager" sent out by the USA will obtain good results at Jupiter?

Senjase- 53/According to our calculations about the course of the sonde, it will fly very near to the star and to different moons of Jupiter, which means that good results have to be obtained, if the instruments of the research means are working faultlessly.

Meier- Will this perhaps mean that the time has come for the scientists to discover that the so-called Red Spot of Jupiter is in truth a self-rotating funnel-shaped hole in the wildly fluctuating surface of this unimproved sun, and that the funnel-hole forms the center of a gigantic and many thousand years long lasting storm? And does this also mean that now it will be found that not only Saturn and Uranus have a ring, but Jupiter as well, even if it is much smaller and thinner than both of the others at Saturn and Uranus?

Senjase- 54/Surely, even this has to be recognized, because the sonde will be steered so close to the celestial body, that it must necessarily record these matters.

Meier- Oh yes, and then perhaps it will be found, that the ring of Jupiter consists in most part of the outthrown particles of the great volcanos of the moon Io, which were partly caught up by Jupiter, while the greatest part of all the outthrown material falls back onto Io again, and in practice covers all volcanic openings, as well as the huge plains and mountains, by which this moon, contrary to the other moons of Jupiter, shows no crater-filled landscape but a fantastic levelness despite the many craters.

Senjase- 55/Suring your excursion tours with me you have very thoroughly listened to me, and admirably kept them in memory. 56/Can you still remember other facts? 57/Besides, these facts will surely be seen by the exploring mean.

Meier- Fine then. Of course I still know several facts, because I have not forgotten all that you and Ptaah explained to me. I still can well remember the differently larger Jupiter-moons having different colors, as for example red, yellow, brown and white, as well as orange. Too, I still know that Jupiter should actually have become a sun, but her mass was too small for this star to really have been able to develop into a sun, but that nevertheless the whole formation consists in greatest part of fluid helium and hydrogen. Then still I know of you or Ptaah explaining to me that in the main parts potash salts and sulphur compounds would form the surface until deep down, and that all would have set down as a very thick crust, when the great masses of water would have vanished from this body. Especially, I think I remember that you said the moon Io was once completely covered by water. If I remember correctly, you both told me; I don't know any more whether you or Ptaah, that the moon Io is exactly the large opposite to the moon Europa, that namely there on the moon Europa, the masses of water had not evaporated and changed, but have frozen into a gigantic armour of ice. Besides this, you still told me many other things and gave explanations to me, of which I still know a lot. So you also told me that the moon having about 200 kilometers in length, which I termed a huge chicken's egg, I think, was the moon next to Jupiter, whose name I do no more remember.

Samjase- 58/Considering all things, you have an admirable memory.59/That moon you just mentioned is called "Amalthea". 60/The moon Io itself, about which you said something, moreover is the most volcano-active planetary body in the solar system. 61/This fact already then was explained to you, if you remember.

Meier- Of course, I don't forget such things so soon. Then you said this moon was much more active volcanically than the Earth. Besides this I still remember very exactly, that you explained that the kilometers large cloud formations of the storm funnel of Jupiter move at great velocity, and rotate counterclockwise.

Samjase- 62/Surely, so I explained.

Meier- Now I wonder whether I remember correctly about the volcanism of the moon Io. If I am right, then you explained that the volcano eruptions occurred by elemental power, and were equal to immense explosions which would fling out their material similar to atom-bomb-clouds, which reached heights of up to 180 kilometers. Mainly this consisted of dust particles, gasses, ashes and a little magma, which reached ejection velocities of up to 2,300 km/h and more, and because of the missing atmosphere of the moon there existed little counterforce. But you told me that the greater part of the outthrown material falls back again onto the moon, as I have already mentioned. The rest, so you explained, was pushed out into free space, of which then a part is attracted by Jupiter, and is very slowly collected into her ring as a compound of sulphur ions. Is this correct?

Semjase- 63/Your memory is very much correct.

Meier- Okay, this will be sufficient. What matter then is interesting me, and which I don't know any more exactly: In Iran should, a short time before the overthrow of the Shah, still break out a civil war of short duration? Do you still know about what time this would happen?

Semjase- 64/Surely, as in the 9th, 10th and 11th of February 1979 this will happen.

Meier- But this whole absurdity will cost the life of many human beings, if I think right. As well about one hundred sentences for death should then get performed by the patronage of the murderer Khomeyni. The whole matter is truly not merely political on the part of the Shah and Khomeyni, but will happen for the reason that Khomeyni wants to take revenge on the Shah, because the father of the Shah had long ago murdered the father of Khomeyni. Is that right?

Semjase- 65/Surely, that is correct.

Meier- Well, this I just wanted to know.

Semjase- 66/Then I can still inform you about other more important matters.

Meier- But if you allow, I have another question yet?

Semjase- 67/Just ask, else you would give me no peace.

Meier- Here you likely think right.

Semjase- 68/So do ask.

Astronomers confirm UFO case information about Jupiter's rings

By Michael Horn

In 1998, astronomers from Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, announced their belief that the rings of Jupiter were composed of dust particles coming off of the moons of Jupiter as a result of meteorite strikes. The rings themselves were officially discovered in March 1979, during a mission of the Galileo probe. And, while the scientists presented their announcement as new findings, it seems that a one-armed Swiss man may have beaten them by some 20 years.

The man in question, Billy Meier, has claimed to be a contactee of extraterrestrial human beings for the last 61 of his 66 years. Well known in UFO circles, his hundreds of stunningly clear photos of UFOs, as well as films, video, sound recordings and metal alloy samples (all still irreproducible), have put him in the center of a swirling controversy that has resulted in 19 documented assassination attempts on his life in the past 28 years.

While his physical evidence is compelling and unique, it appears that we have found an even higher standard of proof – an abundance of accurate scientific information that Mr. Meier has published up to 25 years before “official” discovery. Mr. Meier claims that most of this information, which includes a very detailed description of Jupiter and its rings, was given to him by the extraterrestrials, who call themselves Plejarans. Published material from Mr. Meier reveals that he learned about the rings several months before the arrival of the American space probe, in October of 1978. But it's the detailed description of how they are formed that precedes, and augments, the Cornell University information by 20 years. And it differs with it in a significant way, one that may finally confirm the authenticity of the case beyond any doubt.

The astronomers determined that the dust particles were the result of explosions on the surface of Jupiter's moons caused by the impact of meteorites. But Mr. Meier's material, which is actually a transcription of a conversation between him and one of the alleged Plejarans, claims that the majority of the material in the rings is from material expelled from the numerous volcanoes on the moon Io. Mr. Meier said, in October 1978, that Io is the most volcanically active body in the solar system.

When the Cornell announcement caught my eye I compared it to Mr. Meier's information from 1978. I then contacted Joseph Veverka, Professor of Astronomy and Chairman of the Department of Astronomy at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York, and told him about Mr. Meier's material. Dr. Veverka, along with Cornell astronomer Dr. Joseph Burns, Maureen Ockert-Bell and Dr. Michael Belton of NOAO were the astronomers who reported, in 1998, on the first detailed analysis of a planet's ring system. Dr. Veverka was, uncharacteristically for an academic, quite receptive to looking at Mr. Meier's information, which I forwarded to him. While our conversation is still ongoing, Veverka's comment regarding Mr. Meier's foreknowledge of Io's unique level of volcanic activity was honest and compelling, “If he said that about Io 3-6 months before, then all I can say is that he's right.”

My own layman's reasoning tells me that, while a meteorite may indeed kick up quite a cloud of dust, by virtue of the cloud's shape (and lack of sustained power), only a relatively small portion of dust would find its way high up enough to be taken into the rings. The rest would be dispersed, rather than propelled, and would ultimately settle back down on the surface of the moon. I contend that, even with the most modest consideration, volcanic expulsion is at least as likely to be a cause, if not the prime cause that Mr. Meier claimed it to be.

With volcanoes, the material being ejected is forcefully expelled through a more circumscribed opening, not unlike a canon (as if we need another analogy to describe volcanoes.) The material thus forcefully ejected (if Meier is correct, at speeds of up to 2,300 kilometers per hour to an altitude of 180 kilometers) is a far more contained, directed and concentrated mass, with more sustained and directed power (and velocity) of longer duration than could be expected of a more amorphously shaped cloud lacking the controlled and sustained accelerating force of such volcanic activity.

While both scenarios benefit equally from the lack of atmosphere of the moons, if I understand this correctly, it would seem that such volcanic activity (from the most volcanically active body in the solar system, as you and Meier both agree) would produce a significant contribution to the composition of the rings, at the very least.

While the formation and composition of Jupiter's appears to be the most dramatic aspect, I should also state that the information Mr. Meier also included about the coloration and surface textures of the moons, and other details regarding Jupiter itself, not only are also corroborated by the astronomers, some of it has yet to be discovered by them. Time will tell if he is proven right, again.

Taking into account the enormous body of this and other accurate scientific information in the case, the still irreproducible physical evidence and almost 100 other witnesses, either we must believe that the one-armed Mr. Meier has above-genius level abilities in photography, filmmaking, special effects, sound engineering, metallurgy and scientific precognition, or that the case is real and authentic.

And, while the corroboration of scientific information first published by a simple "farmer" 20 years before major scientists is indeed phenomenal, there is no doubt that (61 years of ongoing) contact between a human and extraterrestrials is the most important event in human history. The real question may be, can we set our egos and sense of self-importance aside for a moment, as Dr. Veverka did, and actually learn something new?

Quaoar: Planetoid Beyond Pluto

Quaoar is a planetoid that lies beyond Pluto's orbit in the solar system. Its discovery in 2002, as well as subsequent discoveries of other small worlds, led to a new classification and the redefinition of Pluto as a "dwarf planet." Quaoar is probably massive enough to be considered a dwarf planet, but it has not been classified as such yet.

Quaoar lurks in the Kuiper Belt, a group of icy objects beyond Neptune. It is about 42 astronomical units, or Earth-sun distances, away. That's about 4 billion miles (6 billion km) — a billion kilometers more distant than Neptune. It takes about 288 years for Quaoar to go once around the sun in a roughly circular orbit.

Mike Brown and Chadwick Trujillo of the California Institute of Technology found Quaoar using a 48-inch telescope at the Palomar Observatory in California. It showed up as an 18.5-magnitude object moving against the background stars in the constellation Ophiuchus. They suggested the name Quaoar [pronounced kwa-o-ar] after a creation god of the Native American Tongva tribe — the original inhabitants of the Los Angeles basin where Caltech is located. According to legend, Quaoar "came down from heaven; and, after reducing chaos to order, laid out the world on the back of seven giants. He then created the lower animals, and then mankind."

1958 – Warning to All the Governments of Europe / Prophecies and Predictions

Revised Translation by Dyson Devine and Vivienne Legg

Spiritual Teaching Symbol 'Prophecy'

Explanation:

The contents of this brochure had already been written by 1958, constructed from statements from the extraterrestrials Sfath and Asket, whereby the letters, of July 5th, 1951, "To All Responsible Ones", and August 25th, 1958, "Warning to all the governments of Europe!", were sent out. No answer to those was ever received, because all responsible ones and governments cloaked themselves in deep silence, besides which, they did not heed the warning or take any of the necessary precautions at all in order to avoid the predicted catastrophes, terrible things and destruction, and so on, which, as the time in between has shown, as foreshadowed catastrophes, have come about without exception. Result: the irresponsible ones in government neither listen to the voices of the proclaimers, nor do they endeavour to protect the people from catastrophes, and indeed not even when it has been predicted for them, point blank, what the future will bring. As it has been since time immemorial, proclaimers are not heeded and their warnings of future happenings are simply cast to the wind, and indeed at the cost and to the disadvantage of the people, who, as a consequence of the lacking determining measures, suffer damage and destruction to their worldly possessions, and whose bodies and lives are even endangered because the irresponsible ones in government who were warned, and who have knowledge, are imperious and only protect their own lives as well as worldly possessions, and quite manifestly think that the entire matter of security and protection of the people is trivial and unnecessary.

The "Prophecies and Predictions" arose according to my own calculations and a foresight, as well as from statements from the Plejaren Sfath, as well as from Asket who comes from the DAL Universe. These 162 verses were written down on the 24th of August, 1958, and sent to Karl und Anny Veit, from "DUIST", respectively the "German Ufological Study Community", in Wiesbaden, Germany, to publish in their "UFO-News". There remains no response from that because "DUIST", respectively K. and A. Veit, cloaked themselves in silence and not even once found it necessary to inform their readers about the prophecies and predictions. As the extraterrestrial Asket clarified, both Veits received the "Prophecies and Predictions" and read it in its entirety, but thereafter destroyed it because the whole thing did not fit into their sectarian concept. This was because unpleasant facts

The whole story seems extremely bizarre and would be difficult for us to believe except that my co-investigators, Lee Elders and his wife Brit, were staying on the property at Hinterschmidruti in the course of an investigation follow-up during 1979, and personally witnessed a similar light show by the same kind of object.

Brit was awakened about two o'clock in the morning by an extremely bright light outside the trailer they were sleeping in. She awakened Lee and together they watched a light display and pattern of events very much like the one described by Billy. There was no evidence that anybody else in the household observed the activity watched by Lee and Brit. One has to wonder how much real activity actually passes completely unobserved by anybody.

Then Billy casually observed that the newspapers had just reported discovery of the 15th satellite of Jupiter and did I remember him telling me that this would happen last time I was there last year? Yes, I did remember, and I even had the German contact notes from that time on my desk in Tucson at this very moment. I had discussed them with Mr. Richard Norton, an astronomer friend of mine. As a matter of fact, I read of the discovery in the same London newspapers that were reporting the terrorist kidnapping of the Iranian Embassy. I had then thought of his report on the moons of Jupiter and how accurate his detailed descriptions had been. I also remembered that the Pleiadians had said that there are in fact 17 satellites of Jupiter -- and that report has been in my hands for over a year.

Then he stated that there are also two more planets orbiting our sun -- both beyond Pluto, and both smaller than Pluto. One of them is quite a ways beyond. He said that it was not the time for us to discover these bodies technically yet, but that they would be identified and studied in the future. He then gave me more pages from that contact, which had been restricted before this time.

Since my last previous trip to Switzerland Genesis III Productions had agreed to a special TV report on this case by Nippon Television Network, Corporation, and Mr. Lee Elders

Billy:

Certainly, you should know that I do that. Say once, though, while we are on this Destroyer: According to the prophecies I have received, there are other comets and also meteors of enormous size that will have an influence on the Earth and the life of this world. I am particularly interested in the 'red Meteor'. Is this now the Destroyer, or is it another comet that keeps passing through our solar system?

Quetzal:

492. Neither, my friend.

493. The meteor mentioned in the prophecies, which will have an enormous size and will cause very vicious destruction on Earth, and which besides climatic also threatens to bring tectonic and other changes, will also threaten to split the Earth's crust, from today's North Sea to the Black Sea, which however does not have to be true with certainty, because today certain factors speak against it.

494. It is coming towards the SOL-system from the depths of space and is, so to speak, an alien.

Billy:

You mean it is not a known comet that keeps making its orbit through our system?

Quetzal:

495. That is of correctness, because this meteor is flying on an orbit that will lead it to the SOL-system for the first time.

496. It has never been to this area of space in earlier times.

Billy:

And its journey is to end on Earth? Is there nothing you can do about it?

Quetzal:

497. You know very well that it will be so and that we must not stop this happening.

498. The cosmic forces themselves have pre-programmed this event, which could only be stopped or averted by the Earth-humans themselves.

499. In their materialistic and misleading disunity and in their megalomania, however, they disregard all warnings and prophecies, so that the event will probably inevitably come to pass, as a reminder and a punishment, if you want to see it in that manner.

500. And since this must be a warning and a rebuke, we must also not take any steps to avert the event.

501. Earth-humans should listen to your words and admonitions, but that is precisely what they do not do.

502. You are standing on a lost post, as a caller in the wilderness, and only a few are and will be willing to hear your words, to grasp them, to think about them and to learn to act correctly.

503. The non-hearing will find many deaths for this, when the meteor begins its work of death and creates a new part of the Earth, through a vast rift of the Earth from the North Sea to the Black Sea, out of which the glowing lava will pour, if the prophecy should be fully fulfilled, which, however, is not yet determined to the last consequence.

Billy:

You say that so dramatically and unscientifically. Incidentally, I would be interested to know where this rift in the Earth originates.

Quetzal:

504. It is our way to remain human also in scientific explanations, without scientific language.

505. A scientific language predominates only among Earth-humans who believe that they have to distinguish themselves with this language.

506. This is a degeneration of callous megalomania, which also leads to the trivialisation of all dangers.

507. This is one of the reasons why we, and also any other intelligent and truthful thinking life-form, never enter into scientific language, but only use a human wise of speaking, which has to sound somewhat dramatic, because the drama of the monstrous actually exists.

508. A purely scientific form of expression is always wrong, because of the trivialisation and misjudgement of the dangers.

509. Regarding the expected Earth rift, I already told you that it will divide the land between the North Sea and the Black Sea.

510. Glowing lava masses and earth gases, etc. will then additionally create a deadly sulphur wall from this, which will drift westwards over the land and thus create an additional death zone, if the prophecy should actually be fully fulfilled, if the Earth-humans do not undertake something about it together.

NASA Corrects Apophis Information, Size Is almost exactly what Billy Meier Foretold

By MH 📅 January 14, 2013 💬 16 comments 👁 4739

UPDATE:

Since this article was first published, NASA again updated their estimate of the size of Apophis to 340 meters, now within...10 meters of what Billy Meier first published.

Despite their overestimation of their own divine infallibility, scientists have now corrected their erroneous estimate of the size of asteroid Apophis, upgrading it from 270 meters to 325 meters...bringing it closer to what UFO contactee and prophet Billy Meier verifiably published in 2008. (Meier and the Plejaren referred to Apophis, beginning in 1981 as the Red Meteor, and said it was “about 350 meters”.)

The news has skeptics, sophists and cynics busily preparing their denial-based comments. The Russians and Chinese, however, apparently already took the hint from Meier’s information, since the celestial visitor will otherwise – with certainty – do its gatecrashing in their overall neighborhoods in 2036.

THE ADVENTURES OF BILLY MEIER!
EPISODE ONE

On October 10, 1981 Billy Meier had Contact #150, when he met with the Plejaren extraterrestrial, Queizal. We join them as they discuss the deadly 493 METEOR, which has come to be officially known as the asteroid APOPHIS.

493. The meteor mentioned in the prophecies, which proves to be of enormous size and will cause most severe destructions on the Earth, and which threatens to bring, aside from climatic and tectonic changes also additional changes, will threaten to split the crust of the Earth from the present-day North Sea down to the Black Sea which, however, does not have to occur with certainty.

494. Because certain factors speak against this: it approaches from the depths of outer space towards the SOL-system and is a so-called stranger.

You mean, that this does not refer to a known comet, which again and again passes our system on its path?

495. That is correct, because the meteor travels on a path, which leads it to the SOL-system for the first time.

496. At earlier times, it was never in this area of space.

Asteroid warning: Real damage and terror would come AFTER Earth strike

A 'GOD OF CHAOS' Apophis asteroid enthusiast has warned there are severe after-effects that could cause severe loss of life in the event a massive asteroid strikes Earth.

By GERRARD KAONGA

14:12, Tue, Nov 19, 2019 | UPDATED: 14:22, Tue, Nov 19, 2019

Michael Horn has warned, in the event of a large asteroid colliding with Earth, it may be the aftermath that causes the biggest loss to life rather than the initial strike. During an interview with Express.co.uk, Mr Horn explained it would be best to be as far away from the impact zone as possible. However, he did explain an asteroid striking the planet could cause volcanic eruptions, earthquakes and tsunamis.

Henoah Prophecies

David@iclegal.co.nz Official Contact Report 215, Saturday, February 28, 1987, 2.09 am

© Billy Meier/FIGU 2002–2004

Quetzal: ...Before I give you a clear account of the prophecies of Henoah, I would like to point out that prophecies are always changeable and can be changed for the better if man makes positive changes in his thoughts, feelings and actions, leading to that which is better and positively progressive. Prophecies always rest upon specific causes; these again result in certain effects, whereby these effects can be changed at any time if only the preceding causes are changed in their form. Therefore, it is possible that negative or evil prophecies do not have to be fulfilled if the preceding causes will be purposely changed in a manner that positivity and good develop instead of negativity and evil. However, this does not apply to predictions, as these rest upon events that cannot be changed, are inevitable and surely and definitely will occur in the future. Predictions rest upon a preview and thus on a direct viewing of the future, and have to do with neither prophecy nor with calculation of probability. So when I make a portion of Henoah's prophecies for the third millennium known to you, it does not mean that they have to be fulfilled, because the prerequisite of fulfilment in each case would be that the already existing causes continue to exist as also continue to be created in the future so that a fulfilment of the prophecies can come to pass. Thus, provided that human beings of Earth will become reasonable, the possibility exists that by a reasonable change in the way of thinking as well as a reasonable development in feeling and an equally reasonable way of acting, everything changes for the better and positive, whereby prophecies do not have to be fulfilled. However, if this transformation does not occur, a very evil, wicked and negative time lies ahead for the Earth and its entire population in the coming new millennium.

Destruction in North America

217. Far in the West, it will be different; the United States of America will be a country of total destruction.

218. The cause for this will be manifold.

219. With its global conflicts which are continuously instigated by it and which will continue far into the future, America is creating enormous hatred against itself, worldwide, in many countries.

220. As a result, America will experience enormous catastrophes which will reach proportions barely imaginable to people of Earth.

221. The destruction of the WTC, i.e., the World Trade Center, by terrorists will only be the beginning.

222. Yet all the apocalyptic events will not only be brought about due to the use of unbelievably deadly and destructive weapons—such as chemical, laser and others—and by cloned murder machines; but in addition to this, the Earth and nature, maltreated to the deepest depths by the irresponsible human beings of Earth, will rise up and cause destruction and bring death onto the Earth.

223. Enormous firestorms and gigantic hurricanes will sweep over the USA and bring devastation, destruction and annihilation, as this from time immemorial never before will have happened [sic].

224. Not only will America, but also all other Western industrial countries which still live at the beginning of the new millennium in the delusion that they could dominate and rule over underdeveloped nations, i.e., Third World countries, will not only soon lose influence over these but must defend themselves against them.

225. According to the prophecies of Henoah, the truth about industrialised countries is that they only seem to appear to be true civilisations, but in fact they are not; because more and more, at the end of the 20th century and at the beginning of the third millennium, they will disregard all true love, true freedom and true wisdom as well as true peace along with all values of humaneness and all values of men's and women's true being.

226. But not even all the terrible happenings will hinder the USA in continuing to proceed with its actions against all countries.

227. Even when the North American continent will be stricken by the most terrible catastrophe which has ever been recorded, evil military powers will wreak havoc with computerised and nuclear, biological and chemical weapons, whereby it will also happen that computerised weapons become independent and cannot be controlled any longer by human beings.

The following pages from And Still They Fly, published in English in 2004, contain excerpts from the Henoch Prophecies, first published in German in 1987. Page 320 contains two important prophecies, the first foretelling two coming US civil wars and the second Switzerland being overrun by war. Page 321 clearly explains that the reason for that will be Switzerland's giving up its centuries-long neutrality:

AND STILL THEY FLY! – Second Edition

Yet the misery on earth will continue, as two terrible civil wars will break out in America, whereby one will follow the other. Afterwards, the United States of America will break apart and deadly hostility will prevail among her, which then leads to the division into five different territories and it cannot be prevented that sectarian fanatics will play a dictatorial role. Anarchy will be the worldwide condition that will prevail and torment human beings over a long period of time, as human beings will also be tormented by the many epidemics and diseases, many of them new and unknown to human beings and for this reason incurable. Due to this fact, the bodies of many human beings will slowly and miserably decay, while unbearable pain will also occur, as well as blindness and terrible respiratory problems that lead to suffocation. The consciousness of many human beings will become impaired and succumb to feeble-mindedness and insanity. And all these gruesome occurrences will be traceable to biological and chemical weapons, which are the cause of not fast, but gruesome and slow deaths; as this will also occur due to the use of ray and frequency weapons which are already being developed today.

Finally, the words of Henoch may specifically be mentioned, which includes, that mankind of earth in pursuit of technology for mass destruction and in greed for power, hatred, vengeance and riches will ignore all values of Creation, and will trample upon all values of love, wisdom, freedom and peace, as ancestors of the Henoch-lineage had done before, to plunge itself and the world into screaming misery, death, destruction and annihilation and into the most severe catastrophes, mankind of earth will ever have experienced.

BILLY: But these are still not all of Henoch's prophecies.

Quetzal: That is correct. Yet, the given explanations should suffice.

BILLY: Ah, one moment please my friend. While you presented the prophecies of Henoch, a question passed through my mind, why Switzerland should actually also pay up, i.e., will be overrun by foreign powers of war. Is there a specific reason for this?

As a neutral country, our country should be respected as such and be spared any actions of war.

QUETZAL: If Switzerland would really remain neutral, she would be spared any actions of war. Due to much irresponsibility among the people and the government, the land of peace, as it was called in early prophecies, will lose its real neutrality, despite different explanations and promises of the irresponsible. Indeed, the fact will be that these irresponsible in office will establish contacts to join the UN and NATO as well as the European Union, which in consequence will destroy the actual neutrality of Switzerland, in fact, contrary to all assertions of the responsible in government and the misled population, as I already explained to you. Through the UN and NATO, Switzerland and her citizens will be drawn into actions of war. Indeed, the nature of the UN should be purely peaceful; yet this will not remain so, for it will be unavoidable that the forces of UN will also take up arms in the new millennium. This may possibly only be for defensive purposes, but this still means actions of war, so death will also reap a rich harvest in the lines of the UN-forces.

However, that will not be all, because in the minds of various responsible officials in top positions of Europe, the idea has emerged to create a European Union; and the people belonging to it will experience a great loss of freedom as also the various central governments which will shamefully sell off their entrusted countries to this European Union, which will exhibit very strong dictatorial tendencies. Brussels in Belgium will be the central seat of the government of this European Union, and those responsible there, will cash in on enormous profits that will have to be paid for by the countries and their populations who belong to the Union. They will call these compensations/profits their just pay, for which all countries and peoples belonging to the European Union will have to perform hard labour. For this reason, the responsible ones of the European Union can live high and squander at the expense of the citizens and then laugh about the stupidity of their supporters. The governments of the countries concerned, as well as the European Union in Brussels will gradually go so far, that they will want to hold

Switzerland joined the UN in 2003 and joined into partnership with NATO in 2023. Both actions were foreseen and forewarned of by the Plejaren, in 1987:

Switzerland marks 20 years at the United Nations

10 September 2022

Switzerland today unveiled a model version of the Palais des Nations in its largest open-air museum, Swissminiatur, to mark the 20th anniversary of its membership at the United Nations.

UN Geneva Director-General Tatiana Valovaya joined Swiss President Ignazio Cassis and the President of the Republic and Canton of Ticino, Claudio Zali, in Melide, on the shores of Lake Lugano, for the event.

Switzerland joined the United Nations on 10 September 2002 after nearly 55 per cent of Swiss citizens voted in favour of becoming a member of the Organization in a national referendum held earlier that same year – the only country to do so based on a popular vote.

In a historic first, Swiss defence minister joins meeting of NATO's North Atlantic Council

22 Mar. 2023 - | Last updated: 22 Mar. 2023 17:52

English | French | Russian | Ukrainian

Viola Amherd, Swiss Federal Councillor and Head of the Federal Department of Defence, Civil Protection and Sport, visited NATO Headquarters on Wednesday (22 March 2023) for talks with Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg, and to meet with NATO ambassadors. Her participation in the North Atlantic Council was the first-ever by a Swiss defence minister.

In their bilateral meeting, Secretary General Jens Stoltenberg thanked Minister Amherd for Switzerland's close partnership with NATO, including its contribution of almost 200 troops to the Alliance's KFOR mission in Kosovo. Underlining a shared commitment to the rules-based international order, the Secretary General underlined that Switzerland's neutrality is not an obstacle to working with NATO, and he welcomed Bern's commitment to further deepen cooperation with the Alliance. He further thanked Switzerland for its humanitarian support to Ukraine, including through NATO's Comprehensive Assistance Package. He urged the Swiss government to reconsider its position on barring re-export of Swiss-made arms and ammunition to Ukraine, which is preventing Allies from providing more support. Mr Stoltenberg underlined that Allies and partners are helping Ukraine to uphold its right to self-defence, as enshrined in the UN Charter.

Verifiably printed in English in 2002, years before Switzerland gave up its neutrality, the 1987 prophecies leave no doubt about the authenticity of the other prophecies, more of which are excerpted below:

1987 Henoah Prophecies Predicted Coming Russian Attacks on Scandinavia

strangers, foreigners and people of different religious beliefs will be the order of the day, as well as the rise of neo-nazism, terrorism and right-wing-extremism. Conditions similar to civil war will be in England, Wales and North Ireland and claim many human lives.

The Soviet Union will be dissolved during this decade or, at the latest, by the beginning of the next. The man decisive for this action will be Mikhail Gorbachev. But this will not lead to rest, because the new Russia will continue its long-standing conflict with China over Inner Mongolia, with the result that Russia will lose a portion of this territory to China. And China becomes dangerous, especially to India, as also at this time China maintains uneasy relations with her. China will attack India, and if biological weapons will be used, around 30 million human beings will be killed in the area of and around New Delhi alone. However, this will not be the end yet; because the effect of biological bombs and missiles etc., used, cannot be controlled at that time and terrible epidemics unknown up to that point in time will arise, and will spread quickly to many areas.

Also Pakistan will allow herself to be misled to instigate a war against India, which will be especially dangerous in view of the fact that both countries are developing atomic weapons. Yet Russia will not rest and will attack Scandinavia and in doing so, embroil all of Europe; and months before that, a terrible tornado will have swept across northern Europe, causing great devastation and destruction. It must still be stated, that the Russian attack will occur during the summer, in fact, starting from Archangelsk. Denmark will not be dragged into the war, due to the insignificance of this country. Yet, Russia will not be satisfied with this action of war, as her will for expansion will be ravenous. And consequently, Russia will launch a military attack against Iran and Turkey and will conquer these two countries in bloody fighting, causing enormous destruction. In the Russian expansionist mentality will also be included the drive to gain control of the Middle Eastern oil deposits, as well as to gain control of the south eastern region of Europe. Therefore, she will also invade the Balkan and conquer these countries there in enormous battles, causing ruthless and devastating destruction with many deaths.

Russians Preparing Predicted Attacks on U.S., Canada and Scandinavia?

Russian troops to be moved to Arkhangelsk, exact location predicted by Swiss prophet, Billy Meier, in 1987; record of impeccable accuracy draws attention to ominous warning of future invasion of U.S.

Playa del Rey, CA (PRWEB) July 25, 2011

In what appears to be another corroboration of specific information foretold by Swiss prophet, Billy Meier, Russia announced plans that could put troops in Arkhangelsk, presumably to protect its interests in gas and oil reservoirs there. The city in the northern part of Russia is the exact location specified by Meier in 1987 as the area from which Russia will launch attacks against Scandinavia. An attack by Russia against the U.S., by way of Alaska, and on Canada, also predicted by Meier, could also originate from the same staging area.

According to Meier's American media spokesman, Michael Horn, "Skeptics have always demanded more and more 'new' predictions from Meier, claiming that he could have backdated all of the corroborated prophetic information in order to make himself look more accurate than he is. However, the prophecies and predictions published by Meier, since 1951, contain so many specific references, more and more of which are being corroborated all the time. If we consider the Russian troop deployment, and the recent military move by Canada, we'd have to be absolute imbeciles to not see the Henoah Prophecies being fulfilled.

"With the documentary about him now available on demand nationwide, people can easily familiarize themselves with Meier and his impeccably accurate predictions. Unfortunately, it seems that the French haven't been paying attention as the prophecies unfold before their very eyes. I hope that this is one time that it isn't considered fashionable, by the U.S. or Canada, to imitate them."

Officials have raised the death toll to five people in a mysterious August 8 explosion and fire at a military unit in Russia's northwestern Arkhangelsk region, as a string of blasts have rocked Russian military sites in recent days.

"As a result of the accident at a military testing range in the Arkhangelsk region involving a liquid-fuel jet engine, five Rosatom employees died," the state-run nuclear company said on August 10, raising the number of fatalities from the two reported a day earlier.

THE HENOCH PROPHECIES

This will be the time, when tremendous natural catastrophes will hit Italy and its people, causing severe hardship. But this will also be the time, when Vesuvius could become active again and could spread tremendous havoc. At the same time a war will shake Italy and claim many human lives as well as cause great destruction. Destruction of war will also descend on the northern countries as strong military forces will invade them from the east and will pillage and murder, and as well as use bombs and missiles, like hail coming down, and hitherto unknown deadly weapons of laser- and computer- controlled types which will destroy and annihilate everything, whereby the first target will be Hungary, after that will follow Austria and northern Italy.

Switzerland will also be severely affected, but will not be the actual target; this will be France and Spain. However, the main objective of the aggressors will be to bring all of Europe under their military control and for that purpose, France will be selected to be the headquarters. France, a country, that not only will be invaded by the aggressors from the outside, but will also be conquered from within as a result of collaborative forces and other forces. This can be envisioned as being the many foreigners of a different religion living in France at that time, and specifically Islam, which will be this force working from within.

Once France has fallen, a war to conquer Spain and England will take place, subsequently, an alliance with the forces of the aggressors will be formed, which will invade Scandinavia. For all these French-based military operations, the weapons of mass destruction stored in the arsenals of France will be used and cause evil devastation, destruction and annihilation. The aggressors from the East will force the French army to join their military forces, and lead a war of conquest against the northern countries of Europe, invading and conquering Sweden and Norway, subsequently these northern countries will be annexed to Russia.

Military forces will also attack Finland, whereby many will be killed and an enormous destruction will be caused, followed by a total dissolution of the country and a long time of occupation irresponsibly acting western countries, should this possibility become reality. In addition, apocalyptic natural catastrophes will occur which will cause all of Europe to shake and tremble, but Europe will continue to exist even after having suffered enormous destruction.

Far in the west, it will be different; the United States of America will be a country of total destruction. The cause for this will be manifold. With her global conflicts which are continuously instigated by her and which will continue far into the future, America is creating enormous hatred against her, worldwide in many countries. As a result, America will experience enormous catastrophes, which will reach proportions barely imaginable to human beings of earth. The destruction of the WTC i.e. the World Trade Centre by terrorists will only be the beginning. Yet all the apocalyptic events will not only be brought about due to the use of unbelievably deadly and destructive weapons, such as chemical, laser and others and by cloned murder-machines, but in addition to this, the earth and nature, maltreated to the deepest depths by the irresponsible human beings of earth, will rise up and cause destruction and bring death onto the earth. Enormous firestorms and gigantic hurricanes will sweep across the USA and bring devastation, destruction and annihilation, as this from time immemorial never before will have happened. Not only America, but also all other western industrialized countries which will still live at the beginning of the new millennium in the delusion they could dominate and rule over underdeveloped countries, i.e. Third World countries, will not only soon lose their influence over these, but must defend themselves against them.

According to the prophecies of Henoch, the truth about industrialized countries is, that they only seem to appear to be true civilizations, but in fact they are not, because more and more toward the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the third millennium, they will disregard all true love, true freedom and wisdom as well as true peace along with all values of humaneness and all values of men's and women's true being. But not even all the terrible happenings will hinder the USA to continue in proceeding will above all have to bear the brunt of the enormous suffering in tremendous numbers in this entire catastrophe, and last but not least, due to the fault of the irresponsible scientists who by cloning will create human machines for military purposes, devoid of conscience and feelings as well as create immensely deadly and all-annihilating computer-like weapons. At the same time the danger could become reality that the human combat machines, the military clones will gain their independence and under their own management will bring death, devastation, destruction and annihilation to the human beings of earth and to the planet. The entire planet will become an arena of unparalleled suffering, which will never have existed before on earth up to that time. The cruel happenings will last about 888 days and cause civilization to collapse. Yet, the terrible scenario will continue, and epidemics and various diseases as well as enormous famine will be spread among the people while the economy of the world will totally collapse, and there will be no possibility to produce any goods. It will be self-evident that all foods and medications etc., will be rationed and whoever steals any of these goods will be punished by death.

The insanity of war will not only extend across the land, but the disaster will equally be spread to the oceans, into the atmosphere even into outer space. But there will also be settlements under the ocean that will be developed in the course of future and these will be attacked and destroyed, claiming the lives of many thousands of people. However, a certain maelstrom of destruction will also originate from the undersea facilities; because in the cities at the bottom of the ocean, groups of submarine pirates will be formed which will burst upward from the depths of the ocean and will become involved in destructive actions of combat with naval fleets on the surface. And at this time, the possibility could become reality that extraterrestrial forces intervene against the western industrialized countries, because these will be responsible for the extreme and enormous disaster of the coming evil times. These extraterrestrial forces will give up their anonymity and their state of secrecy and will assist those who are being terrorized by the

with her actions against all countries. Even when the North American continent will be stricken by the most terrible catastrophe which ever will have been recorded, evil military powers will wreak havoc with computerized and nuclear, biological and chemical weapons, whereby it will also happen that computerized weapons become independent and cannot be controlled any longer by human beings. Overall, this is the most important part of Henoah's prophecies.

BILLY: But there is still more to it, at least, that is what you told me. May I please ask you to continue?

QUETZAL: You are untiring; so I will point out a few more important facts of the prophecies: As of now, new epidemics have spread among the people of earth, however, as Henoah prophesied, quite a number of further epidemics will follow. Not only AIDS will occur worldwide in the nineteen-nineties, but also epidemics such as the so-called mad cow disease, i.e. BSE, out of which different strains of the Creutzfeldt Jacob-Syndrome will develop, lasting well into the new millennium.

Also an epidemic known as Ebola will cause many deaths, as well as other unknown epidemics and diseases, which will sporadically arise in epidemic proportions and will be new to the human being, causing great concern. However, most of the evil will be brought about by politics. France and Spain become involved with each other in armed conflicts, and that even before World War Three will have broken out. Yet France will not only engage in armed conflicts with Spain, for within her great unrests will arise, leading to upheavals and civil war, as it is the case in Russia and Sweden. Especially in France and Sweden, machinations as well as dictatorial regulations of the European Union will cause much unrest and many uprisings, but also crimes committed by gangs and organized criminal elements in these countries will cause unavoidable civil wars. In addition, significant tensions will arise between the native citizens and immigrants from foreign countries, who as a rule also observe religious beliefs different from those of the native populace. And in the end, this will lead to severe conflicts. Hatred against by Russian forces. This will also be the point in time, when the German citizenry will fight a civil war and simultaneously will be attacked by a large army from the east. Yet, the country and her population will be able to shake off the yoke of the aggressors, at first, however, it will be caught by the power of the invading military forces. After some time, peoples will rise up against the aggressors and invaders, resulting in a struggle for independence all over Europe. At the same time, when a civil war rages in Germany, an enormously bloody revolution will break out in England, which will claim more lives than will be claimed by the civil war in Germany. And because England and Ireland have been at war for a long time already, due to the IRA and the police- and military forces of England, the result will be (because this feud will continue up to that time) that this revolution will spread out to all of Ireland, especially affecting North Ireland. Many lives will be lost during a civil war in Wales, where differences between various parties will arise before the Third World War. Welsh and English forces will clash especially near Cymru and claim many lives and cause great destruction.

But death, destruction and annihilation will not only rage in Europe but also in America, where much suffering will have to be endured, and many deaths as well as destruction and annihilation will be. America and Russia will have the most terrible weapons of mass destruction at their disposal — a fact that is already the case to a certain extent today — and will clash with violent force against each other at that time, whereby Canada will also be dragged into this conflict. The source of this conflict will substantiate the Russian attack on the American State of Alaska and against Canada. This conflict will result in mass killings of human beings as well as devastating destruction, annihilation and epidemics etc., which mankind of earth will ever have seen and experienced up to that time. Not only nuclear, biological and chemical-weapons will be used en masse, but also enormously deadly systems of computer-controlled weapons that are only in the beginning stages of development today, or will be invented and constructed during the third millennium.

THE HENOCH PROPHECIES

As already mentioned, enormous natural catastrophes and rolling walls of fire and violent hurricanes will rage across all America, while in addition, all the terrible effects of war will bring thousandfold deaths, destruction and annihilation. America's largest cities will be absolutely destroyed and firestorms will cause great disaster and misery. Severe earthquakes and volcanic eruptions will also belong to that time, and these will cause much suffering and misery and deaths besides enormous destruction and devastation, as all of nature and the planet itself will rise up against the insanity of human beings on earth. However, tornados, earthquakes and volcanic eruptions will not only rage in America, but also in Europe and in the rest of the world. These activities have already begun at the present time, also during the past decades, with the exception that they will become increasingly more devastating in the future. And man of earth is guilty for the most part, today, as also in the future it is man who destroys the entire environment: All of nature, the atmosphere, water and all the resources of the planet. And through this a shifting of weight inside the earth takes place, caused for example by the creation of gigantic lakes by damming and by creating hollow caverns due to the exploitation of petroleum and gas etc. And thereby unnatural inner earth movements are created, which also lead to unnatural tectonic effects and cause earthquakes and volcanic eruptions, which also in turn cause enormous climatic changes, resulting in horrendous tornados of devastating proportions which, in the end, will set their destructive energies free on the entire world. All of this will also lead to increasingly horrible floods and unusually massive snowfalls, which will advance to the southern countries and finally even to the equatorial regions, because through the insanity of human beings, the earth has begun unnoticeably to spin as a consequence of atomic explosions inside and on the surface of the earth. And this will be the reason that the planet will slowly but surely enter an extraordinary spinning orbit around the sun, while the first phase is already occurring, which causes a change in climate, leading to a new ice age.

Harsh Truth from Plejaren About SARS-CoV-2 Pandemic

UPDATE:

Warnings about true facts and extent of the disease being officially confirmed:

US isn't prepared for outbreak: This is a 'coronavirus winter'

- This is already a pandemic and must be treated as such
- Avoid airplanes, ships, mass transportation, crowds
- Stay at home to avoid exposing yourself to risk of infection
- Real number of infections and deaths much higher than reported
- Actual incubation period up to four weeks to 3 months
- Spread by asymptomatic people; through air, breath, clothing, etc.
- Breathing masks useless, virus penetrates because so small
- Full-body protective suit, breathing apparatus only real protection
- Hermetic quarantine required, must be longer than 2 weeks
- Asian races initially most susceptible but will spread to others
- Virus becomes more aggressive over time, claiming more lives
- Children mainly immune, main hidden spreaders of disease****
- China, US, etc., suppressed truth for political and economic reasons
- The WHO culpable for not immediately proclaiming pandemic risk

An unprecedented conveyance of harsh information, about the SARS-CoV-2 pandemic, from the Plejaren extraterrestrial human race, to the people of Earth:

What there is to say about the Coronavirus and what to take heed of

Fundamentally: The same applies with all highly infectious/contagious sicknesses/illnesses and rampantly spreading diseases:

One should avoid airplanes, ships, mass transportation and large crowds whenever possible and rather stay at home rather than exposing yourself to the risk of infection.

What is the origin of the corona virus and what is it exactly?

The Coronavirus, or also Sars-CoV-2, is a mutation of the well-known SARS virus, which in turn claimed around 1,000 officially confirmed lives during the 2002/2003 epidemic. Carriers of the SARS virus, which corresponds to a Coronavirus strain, are the Chinese horseshoe bat flying-mammals, which do not themselves become ill and are immune to the virus. The current Sars-Cov-2 virus, or the Coronavirus as it is popularly called, was accidentally and unintentionally carried off and released from 2 secret laboratories in Wuhan.

Two technicians from the secret laboratories have since died of the new type of lung disease, and these two people spread the Coronavirus to several other people, causing the disease to spread rapidly. According to Ptaah, the Coronavirus, or Sars-CoV-2, which has recently also been called Covid-19, is quite life-threatening, above all for Chinese and Southeast Asians, because all Chinese tribes have a completely different immune system than, for example the Europeans, the English and Eurasians, who have propagated and spread out conqueringly in America, Australia and New Zealand, etc., and who, through the conquests, also (inter)mixed with the indigenous peoples, resulting in new immune system changes that were stronger or weaker than they were originally.

New Online COVID-19 Test: Some of the 40+ Specific, Error-free, Examples of Prophetically Accurate COVID Information Provided to and Published by Billy Meier Verifiably BEFORE All "Official Discoveries"

New Online COVID-19 Test

By MH  September 11, 2020  27 comments  9987

An easy, do-it-yourself test to determine the source of the most accurate and important information about the disease

Here's how you can verify for yourself who first published the most accurate information about these important aspects of the COVID-19 pandemic, Billy Meier or the "official sources":

Each search term is numbered, e.g. 1. Pandemic. So, simply compare the information in each of the underlined, dated links in each question below, to verify who published first, and mark your choice in the space to the left of each option. Then total the responses to determine which is the most accurate and reliable source of information.

Feel free to share this test with family, friends, news media, medical practitioners, schools, etc.

NOTE: If earlier "official discovery" dates are found, please submit them and I will correct the information.

WUHAN CORONAVIRUS BIOWEAPON INFORMATION FIRST PUBLISHED NOVEMBER 2019

January 5, 2021 (Viz Release) – – First verifiable English translation, May 9, 2020, establishes ironclad accuracy of Coronavirus information from Swiss man prior to all “official sources”

Referring to his May 9 article, with the English translation of information from November 30, 2019, science researcher, Michael Horn, said, “There is nothing really new in the reports about the current Coronavirus originating in, and escaping from, a Wuhan bioweapons laboratory, as a result of a ‘leak or an accident’. In fact, our information is still far more comprehensive”.

Excerpts from the 2019 information, first published in German by Mr. Billy Meier, included:

“At that time, the leader of China, Mao Zedong, met with a vengeful American citizen who presented the Chinese party leader with the idea of developing a viral bioweapon, which Mao Zedong then took up and had implemented as a secret matter, which is still being worked on today and from which the coronavirus has now emerged...”

“Therefore a continuation of the mutating SARS coronavirus will occur, however, no longer in Guangdong, because the secret laboratory work has been moved to another secret laboratory in a city called Wuhan, where another epidemic arises due to a new coronavirus, which will spread far across the world and claim many deaths when, in a month’s time, the disaster officially begins, which cannot be avoided.”

According to Horn, “We published additional accurate information, from Mr. Meier, in Switzerland, on February 20, almost 11 months ago (emphasis added):

“According to new information from Billy Meier, the actual current coronavirus is a mutation of the SARS virus, which has been produced in a secret bio lab in China. This time, again, the virus has ‘left’ the lab, and two of the involved scientists have died in the meantime. While the research on these viruses continues, it’s important to know that the Chinese Government is NOT involved...”

“And again, on February 25, we published what many now consider the most important and accurate information from Mr. Meier about all aspects of the disease, including about the accidental release from a lab in Wuhan:

“The current Sars-Cov-2 virus, or the Coronavirus as it is popularly called, was accidentally and unintentionally carried off and released from 2 secret laboratories in Wuhan.”

Horn said that since February 25 – when there were only 57 cases in the entire country – he began providing the information to governmental, medical and media officials, worldwide, but without any response.

As for how the average person, let alone medical professionals, can verify the accuracy for themselves, Horn said, “Anyone can take the test Dr. Charles Rothberg did to verify the published dates, and impeccable accuracy, of the information we continue to receive from Mr. Meier. It never needs revision or correction and is further detailed in 90 articles to date. Copyrights establish that we always publish his information before any official sources, like the CDC, WHO, etc...”

“This disease has already cost millions of lives. Thoroughly investigating Mr. Meier’s information could help to avoid millions more unnecessary casualties. Had the recommendations, from February 25, for self-isolation, hermetically sealed quarantines and a lockdown been strenuously adhered to, the disease probably would’ve been contained and controlled within a few months. And the economic crisis could’ve been greatly lessened. In February, Mr. Meier first accurately warned, that infants in the womb would also be affected. This is a clear indication that we should heed the warnings, or this disease may pass through many generations and be with us for the foreseeable future.”

Horn added, “While people may not expect the information to come to us in this manner, all that will matter to the millions of people whose lives have already been affected by the disease, those who are the survivors, or who have lost loved ones, is that the information is absolutely accurate. And now, that the announcement from our own government today corroborates our accuracy, we implore our experts, virologists, immunologists, etc., to investigate...for the sake of all humankind.”

Coming Collapse of US Dollar

UPDATE: Billy Meier Info on Fall of US Dollar from 2006

By MH June 30, 2018 15 comments 4323

NOTE: We just received urgent information from Switzerland, about coming events. So I'm republishing the blog and video below, from 2006, as well as Billy Meier's 2017 information, I think we should be aware, vigilant, and especially mindful of the lengths to which a country may go to try to stave off the inevitable financial crash.

Meier also warned about federal connection to domestic terror attacks

In the video below, uploaded in 2007, a year after I had first recorded it, I reported on several things, including Billy Meier's comment about 9/11, Al-Qaeda, etc., and the decline of the US dollar:

Meier recently gave more information here about the coming global financial collapse, the ban on cash and the real fate of the country, once the government turns against the American people:

30. Also in the USA the population shall get dispossessed as a consequence of the worldwide financial crisis, which will lead to the incensed and partly heavily armed population being advanced on by military and police powers with evil Gewalt.

From this we may also understand the push to disarm the populace and perhaps even the origin of some of the events used to justify this effort, as explained by Meier, in 2015 (emphasis added):

But it is not only the Nazi organisations and the Ku-Klux-Klan as well as other known racist groups which promote the racism in the USA, because, as unbelievable as it sounds, it is effectively also security groups and security organisations, such as the FBI (U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation), which is the greatest trainer of terrorists in the USA, and the CIA (Central Intelligence Agency = overseas secret service of the United States), which stirs up the paranoia in the population everywhere. This is done by persuading human beings – who are weak in consciousness or are somehow willing – to carry out attacks and acts of terror, after which the 'perpetrators' are, as in a stage play, hunted down and imprisoned, presented to the population through the media and then convicted. So it is a fact that since the 11th of September 2001, of the altogether 175 'failed' terror attacks in the USA to the year 2015, only just six assassination attempts did not lead back to the federal authorities.

In light of this, we can consider what Meier was first told in 1975, and then reiterated, in 2012:

"...the superpower USA could come to an end after 2020, if nothing in this country changes for the better by then..."

Considering the accuracy of the information that Meier has been provided over the past 70 years, and that which he himself has predicted, it's no wonder that there have been 23 assassination attempts on his life, as well as relentless ongoing attacks, by very powerful parties, to sabotage his efforts through sophisticated electronic hacking (some of which I have personally seen) and reported here.

Coming Dispossession of American People, Cashless Society, Blaming Russia for WW III

27. Worldwide, the incessantly growing overpopulation and all the maladministration systems of all kinds and in all areas will continue to drive the numbers of unemployed high and achieve forms which will call forth tremendous problems, as has never been the case with any earlier times of unemployment.
28. In the whole economy, wages for the employees will sink very low and call forth monstrous financial problems in all levels of the population of the workers' world, whereby also the whole social services will suffer harm, break down and all around also the rapidly increasing criminality will call forth tremendous problems.
29. Through speculators a global financial and economic crisis will be called forth, such as has never before occurred, consequently also the entire world of finance will get into great trouble and also much terribleness and great lack in regard to economic goods will come about.
30. Also in the USA the population shall get dispossessed as a consequence of the worldwide financial crisis, which will lead to the incensed and partly heavily armed population being advanced on by military and police powers with evil Gewalt.
31. The planned ban on cash shall bring about the dispossession of the populations, while, however, the elite of the governors and of capitalism can, for their part, "swim" in joy and splendour. And the entire financial system of the entire world shall be toppled, in order thereby to newly arrange all existing state debts of all countries, and indeed such that generally only the populations of the countries come to harm. Already in the USA and in the EU dictatorship, there exist secret plans to start a war from Germany against Russia, which shall be named as the reason for the entire arising worldwide crisis. And that thereby the blame for this war is to then be shoved onto Russia, naturally completely unrightly – if it actually comes about – is clear right from the start. And if this war actually occurs, then from that martial law is deduced, which suppresses the incensed population – which will be completely dispossessed – through strong and ruthless military and police powers.
